Indian Polity - Sample Notes for Testing

Unit 1: The Constitution

The Constitution of India is the supreme law of India. It was adopted by the Constituent Assembly on 26 November 1949 and came into effect on 26 January 1950. It is the longest written constitution of any country in the world.

Unit 2: Fundamental Rights

Fundamental Rights are enshrined in Part III of the Constitution, from Article 12 to Article 35. Article 21 guarantees the Right to Life and Personal Liberty. No person shall be deprived of his life or personal liberty except according to procedure established by law.

Unit 3: The Governor

The Governor is the constitutional head of a state in India, appointed by the President of India for a term of five years. The Governor acts on the advice of the Council of Ministers headed by the Chief Minister. The Governor also has certain discretionary powers, such as reserving a bill for the President's consideration.

Unit 4: The State Legislature

The State Legislature may consist of one or two houses. States with a bicameral legislature have a Legislative Assembly and a Legislative Council. The Legislative Assembly is the lower house, and members are directly elected by the people.

Unit 5: TNPSC Group 4 Exam Structure
